Key Understanding: The birth of the ‘image of the beast’ United Nations. The “World Peace through Democracy” Birth of the ‘Image of the Beast’ United Nations at St. James Palace on June 12, 1941, declared the “World Peace through Democracy” doctrine and spirit which was identical to the doctrine and spirit of the Beast, and identical to the doctrine and spirit of the earliest steps toward the birth of the ‘Image of the Beast’ League of Nations.

Here are the specifics.

Inter-Allied Meeting, held in London at St. James Palace on June 12, 1941

Resolution

The Governments of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, the Government of Belgium, the Provisional Czechoslovak Government, the Governments of Greece, Luxemburg, the Netherlands, Norway, Poland and Yugoslavia, and the Representatives of General de Gaulle, leader of Free Frenchmen,

Engaged together in the fight against aggression,

Are resolved

1. That they will continue the struggle against German or Italian oppression until victory is won, and will mutually assist each other in this struggle to the utmost of their respective capacities;

2. That there can be no settled peace and prosperity so long as free peoples are coerced by violence into submission to domination by Germany or her associates, or live under the threat of such coercion;

The Inter-Allied Meeting held in London at St. James Palace (above) on June 12, 1941, was the early step in the building of the United Nations. Later (below) would come the clearing of ground on Manhattan’s east side to begin construction of the actual United Nations buildings in 1949-1950.

3. That the only true basis of enduring peace is the willing co-operation of free peoples in a world in which, relieved of the menace of aggression, all may enjoy economic and social security; and that it is their intention to work together, and with other free peoples, both in war and peace to this end.
