

#833 Churchill's Mother – Winston Churchill: English on his father's side, American on his mother's side

We will still be dealing with the White Horse Rider and Black Horse Rider and Man o' War (the most recent series), but we are now ready to add Churchill's Mother. The central figure is the American mother of Winston Churchill, Jennie Jerome.

Churchill's English father, Lord Randolph Churchill

Winston Churchill's father, British statesman Lord Randolph Churchill, was born on February 13, 1849, as the third son of the 7th Duke of Marlborough. Lord Randolph was a brilliant Conservative leader in Britain. In his late 30's, he became Secretary of State for India (1885-1886), Chancellor of the Exchequer (1886), Conservative Leader of the House of Commons (1886-1887), and Leader of the House of Commons (1886-1887). He died young at the age of 45 on January 24, 1895.

Churchill's American mother, Jennie Jerome

Winston Churchill's mother, Jennie Jerome, was born in Brooklyn, New York, on January 9, 1854. She was the daughter of prosperous financier Leonard Jerome, called by newspapers "The King of Wall Street." In 1873, Jennie Jerome would meet Lord Randolph Churchill in England. The romance advanced quickly. They would soon marry and Winston Churchill, their first son, was born on November 30, 1874, at Blenheim Palace.

Key Understanding: Churchill represents both Great Britain and the United States. The Lord intended for Winston Churchill to represent the massive Church-ill theme for both the American and British peoples. He was English on his father's side and American on his mother's side. Churchill embodied and expressed the vitality and national qualities of both peoples. During World War II and the early years of struggle against Communism that followed, Winston Churchill made himself an indispensable link between the British and American peoples. British-American unity was also the message of his last great book, A History of the English-Speaking Peoples.

Winston Churchill, May 13, 1940, World War II

You ask, what is our policy? I say it is to wage war, by land, sea, and air. War with all our might and with all the strength God has given us, and to wage war against a monstrous tyranny never surpassed in the dark and lamentable catalogue of human crime. That is our policy.

Daniel 7:21 (KJV) I beheld, and THE SAME HORN [the Daniel 7:8 Little Horn Nation of America and Winston Churchill] MADE WAR WITH THE [Church-ill] SAINTS, and prevailed against them;
