#1059 The Revelation 3:21 Grant – U.S. Grant and Wilson

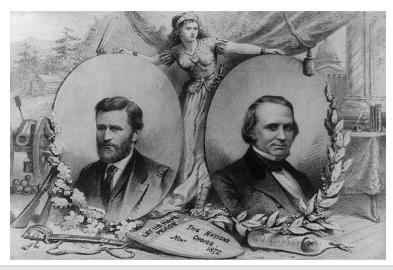

Unsealing #1053 was about U.S. Grant and Seymour. This Unsealing #1059 is about U.S. Grant and Wilson.

U.S. Grant was U.S. President for two terms, from 1868-1872 and 1872-1876. We mentioned in Unsealing #1055 that it would seem appropriate that a man named Seymour, referring to Horatio Seymour (who opposed U.S. Grant in the 1868 presidential election), would be U.S. Grant's vice-presidential running mate in 1868, simply because of our already known link between U.S. Grant and (William Joseph) Seymour. Instead, Schuyler Colfax was Vice-President under U.S. Grant during Grant's first term. (Colfax was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives from Indiana in 1855, and stayed there 14 years. He joined the new Republican Party and became Speaker of the House of Representatives in 1863, during the Civil War, holding the post until he became Vice-President.)

Grant's vice-presidential running mate in his successful run for reelection in 1872 was long-time Republican U.S. Senator (1855-1873) from Massachusetts, Henry Wilson. He resigned his Senate seat to become Vice-President under U.S. Grant (1873-1875), though he died mid-way through his term of office. (There would be no replacement for Wilson after his death through the remainder of the term.)

The Lord ordained U.S. Grant to be joined with Henry Wilson (an 1868 campaign poster is above) to further point to and confirm the prophetic relationship between U.S. Grant (below left) at the former rain end of the Civil War and Woodrow Wilson (below right) at the latter rain April 6 [= 9], 1917, U.S. entry into World War I.

Henry Wilson (February 16, 1812-November 22, 1875) was born Jeremiah Jones Colbath in Farmington, New Hampshire. In 1833, he had his name legally changed to Henry Wilson. He had been adopted by a man with the last name of Wilson when the Colbath family of twelve could not support itself.

Wilson was an unsuccessful candidate for Congress in 1852, and again an unsuccessful candidate for Governor of Massachusetts in 1853. He helped found the Republican Party. In 1855, he was elected to the U.S. Senate by a coalition of Free-Soilers, Americans, and Democrats to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Edward Everett. He was re-elected as a Republican thereafter in 1859, 1865, and 1871. During the Civil War, Wilson was chairman of the Senate Military Affairs Committee.

Key Understanding: Grant and Wilson to point to Grant and Wilson. U.S. Grant's Vice-President during the first part of his second term was Henry Wilson. The Lord ordained Wilson to be joined with U.S. Grant, including the fact that he was chairman of the Senate Military Affairs Committee during the Civil War while Grant was the commander of the Union armies, to further point to and confirm the prophetic relationship between U.S. Grant at the former rain end of the Civil War and Woodrow Wilson at the latter rain April 6 [= 9], 1917, U.S. entry into World War I.

Revelation 3:21 (KJV) TO HIM THAT OVERCOMETH [(i) the U.S. Grant-led Joel's former rain-reign Union Army and the United States on April 9, 1865, (ii) the William Joseph Seymour/Edward Lee Latter Rain-reign Pentecostals on April 9, 1906, and (iii) the April 6 [= 9], 1917, Woodrow Wilson-led Joel's Latter Rain-reign 'Man o' War' U.S. Army] WILL I GRANT TO SIT WITH ME IN MY THRONE, EVEN AS I ALSO OVERCAME, AND AM SET DOWN WITH MY FATHER IN HIS THRONE.
