

#1959 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – The post-World War II U.S. waxing great toward the South and toward the East as a second Syria/Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 218, The Assassination of John F. Kennedy, (xxxix), John F. Kennedy in the Little Horn passage of Daniel 7:8-11: The great words of John Nixon in Daniel 7:8 on July 8, 1776, and the great words of John F. Kennedy in Daniel 7:11 on January 20, 1961

Review (from Unsealing #1950): Daniel 7:8 and John F. Kennedy. To further show the link between the rise of America as the Little Horn, in fulfillment of Daniel 7:8, and John F. Kennedy, the Lord ordained 178 ‘Beast out of the Pit’ years – in a further revealing of Revelation 17:8 – between the ‘Oswald’ January 20, 1783, preliminary peace treaty with Great Britain which finalized American independence, and the January 20, 1961, ‘heirs of that first revolution’ inaugural address of John F. Kennedy after defeating Richard Nixon.

Key Understanding #1: The great words of the Declaration of Independence. “In this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things” in Daniel 7:8 and “I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake” in Daniel 7:11 are each fulfilled by (i) the reading of the Declaration of Independence publicly for the first time, on July 8, 1776, by Col. John Nixon in Philadelphia, and (ii) John F. Kennedy’s ‘we are the heirs of that first revolution’ inaugural address of January 20, 1961.

Daniel 7:8 (KJV) I considered the [ten] horns, and behold, there came up among them another LITTLE HORN [the United States of America], before whom there were THREE OF THE FIRST HORNS [England, France, and Spain, uprooted by Mexico in 1821, which was then uprooted by the United States in the 1846-1848 Mexican War] PLUCKED UP BY THE ROOTS: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and A MOUTH SPEAKING GREAT THINGS [referring to the Declaration of Independence and its meaning and doctrines, first read publicly on 7/8, by the mouth of Colonel John Nixon, in fulfillment of Daniel 7:8].

Daniel 7:11 (KJV) I beheld then because of THE VOICE OF THE GREAT WORDS WHICH THE HORN SPAKE [represented by John F. Kennedy’s inauguration speech of January 20, 1961]: I BEHELD EVEN TILL THE BEAST WAS SLAIN [warned about by the presaging event of the November 22, 1963, Oswald assassination of John F. Kennedy], AND HIS BODY DESTROYED, AND GIVEN TO THE [eternal] BURNING FLAME [warned about by the eternal flame placed on the gravesite of John F. Kennedy at his burial on November 25, 1963].

Key Understanding #2: Kennedy’s inauguration and burial are part of Daniel 7:11. The point is that both Kennedy’s January 20, 1961, inauguration speech and Kennedy’s November 22-25, 1963, slaying and burial are a part of the fulfillment of Daniel 7:11.

Here is #1959–Doc 1, which is the content of John F. Kennedy’s January 20, 1961, inauguration speech, with its plethora of “great words which the horn spake,” including the best known words from the speech, “And so, my fellow Americans: ask not what your country can do for you—ask what you can do for your country.” Essentially, John F. Kennedy was representative of the mouth of America and its great words from its very beginning.
