

#2121 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – The post-World War II U.S. waxing great toward the South and toward the East as a second Syria/Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 380, The History of the Pale of Settlement, (vii), The Three Partitions of Poland-Lithuania

Key Understanding: The three partitions of Poland-Lithuania. The three partitions of Poland were discussed in Unsealing #2096. However, it is more precise to say that the three partitions of the Polish Empire were three partitions of what had been the union of Poland and Lithuania. The Polish (Poland-Lithuania) Empire declined from the late 1600's into the 1700's. In 1772, 1793, and 1795, the Austrian Empire, the Prussian Empire, and the Russian Empire took advantage of Poland's weaknesses and divided all of the territory of Poland-Lithuania among themselves.

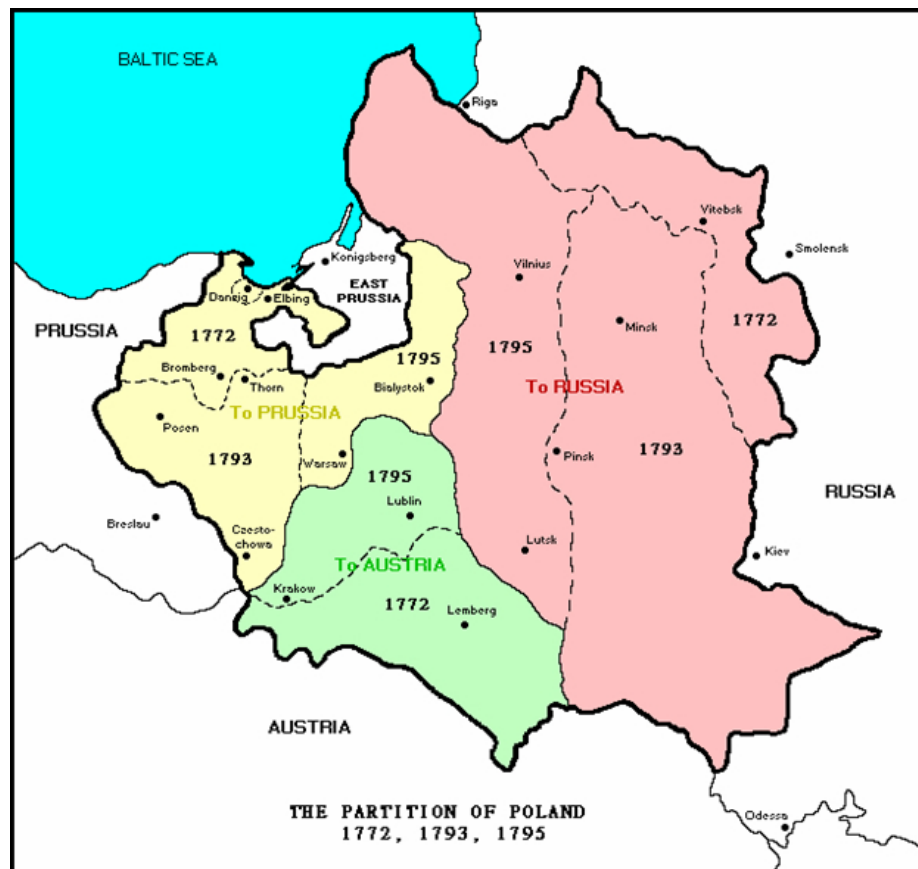

The first partition of Poland, in 1772, resulted in Poland losing about a third of its land to the neighboring countries (empires) of Austria, Prussia, and Russia.

The second partition of Poland, in 1793, resulted in Russia taking most of the regions of Lithuania and the Ukraine in eastern Poland, while Prussia took most of western Poland.

The third partition of Poland, in 1795, resulted in Austria, Prussia, and Russia occupying what remained of Poland.

Poland ceased to exist as an independent nation in 1795.

Revelation 6:8a (KJV)
And I looked,
and behold A PALE HORSE: and his name that sat on him
was DEATH,
AND HELL
followed with him.
