We are moving from The Pale Horse to introducing The Prince That Shall Come.

Daniel's 70th week and "the prince that shall come." The passage of Daniel 9:24-27 contains one of the most well-known and talked about prophecies in the Old Testament, Daniel's 70th week. Mentioned within the midst of the passage, in Daniel 9:26, is "the prince that shall come." "The prince that shall come" is the figure of antichrist. He stands in contrast to "Messiah the Prince" in Daniel 9:25.

The Messiah the Prince

Daniel 9:24-27 (KJV) SEVENTY WEEKS are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.
25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto THE MESSIAH THE PRINCE shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

The prince that shall come

26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of THE PRINCE THAT SHALL COME shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.
27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for ONE WEEK: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.
