

#2564 The Yom Kippur War and the Abomination of Desolation – The post-World War II U.S. waxing great toward the South and toward the East as a second Syria/Antiochus IV Epiphanes, part 823, The 1947-1948 Tribe of Dan, (xxiv), Israel’s May 14-15, 1948, independence was declared in the city of Tel Aviv, which is located on the land allocated to the tribe of Dan

Tel Aviv and the metropolitan area of Gush Dan. Tel Aviv is located in Dan. The city of Joppa (Jaffa), on the coast of the Mediterranean Sea, was a part of the territory inherited by the tribe of Dan. Joppa is today a part of the municipality of the city of Tel Aviv, which is also located on the land that was allocated to the tribe of Dan. The modern city of Tel Aviv was founded by Zionists in 1909, and came to prominence as a business and cultural center following Israel’s independence in 1948. The large metropolitan area of which Tel Aviv is a part is known as Gush Dan, for the area is located on the land allocated to the tribe of Dan.

Key Understanding: Israeli independence in 1948 was declared in the land allocated to the tribe of Dan. Israel's May 14-15, 1948, independence was declared in the city of Tel Aviv, which is located on land that was allocated to the tribe of Dan when Israel entered the Promised Land. The Lord ordained the birth of Israel to be declared in the land of Dan in the year 1948 to point to Joshua 19:48, for the purpose of illustrating the prophetic point that the Jews who founded Israel in 1948, and the Jews of Israel today, are of “the tribe of Dan,” the tribe that is omitted in Revelation chapter 7.

Joshua 19:48 (KJV) This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.
