Review (from the previous Unsealing): Through Martin Luther and his doctrine of “just war”, which is justified by Abraham’s Battle of Dan, we can see that Martin Luther’s ‘just war’ Church-ill of the sword is represented by Abraham’s Battle of Dan.

Abraham’s Battle of Dan represents Martin Luther’s ‘just war’ Church-ill

Genesis 14:14 (KJV) And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his trained servants, born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, AND PURSUED THEM UNTO DAN.

Key Understanding: The tribe of Dan represents the Martin Luther Church-ill. The underlying purpose for (a) the Lord ordaining Abraham to the Battle of Dan, and the underlying purpose for (b) Martin Luther’s ‘just war’ Church-ill of the sword being represented by Abraham’s Battle of Dan, is that the Church-ill of the sword is the “tribe of Dan” in the Lord’s eyes – the ‘missing’ tribe of Dan of Revelation chapter 7.

Revelation 7:4 (KJV) And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand OF ALL THE TRIBES OF THE CHILDREN OF ISRAEL [which do not include the tribe of Dan].
